

False Indigobush Stands (Map Class 29.0)

Location: This type is found only in a few isolated patches in the eastern portion of the Refuge. This shrub type is not a true community but occurs along some drainages and streams.

Photo Signature: This type occurs on the photos as a coarse textured bright pink to pink color. The signature is similar to other shrub types and was mapped for this project based on field verification.

Photograph 8-8 with mylar
Horizons, Inc